

Final Project: DVD Script

Upon startup:

Play approximately 15 second video clip. This clip is not a highlight of contained video clips but a kind of intro-animation.

At first, three white circles appear on black screen, and then these circles start to change their size and color. By using zoom-in & out, those motions are animated. At the end of the movie, three orange circles may remain and be a part of main menu.

The main purpose of this intro movie is to make interesting feelings and to entertain the viewer. At the same time, circles means various ideas of Inhan Cho, and three circles left at the end of the movie also means the ideas coming from Inhan Cho.

Main Menu (Normal)

Main Menu Choices:

Video
Audio
Special (Features)

Main menu is a highlight menu. Three choices are possible. Three circles are rotated at a little fast speed. A few graphics appear on the circles when they are rotated.

Video Menu (Normal)

Video:

A TV commercial

Doom of Paper Clip

Vice Grip

Main Menu

After selecting video in the main menu, the video menu may appear. This menu is a highlight menu and four choices are available. Short highlight clips of three movies may be also played in this menu and so the viewer can see what sub menu contains. Video clips may be played in three small boxes. "Main Menu" is for going back to the main menu.

Audio Menu (Normal)

Audio:

Dallas Fever

Main Menu

Audio menu is a layer menu. Because it contains only one sub menu, the information about “Dallas Fever” may be appear. “Dallas Fever” is a radio drama that is the final project of the class T353, and it will be played with some graphics (slideshow). These graphics correspond with the story of the radio drama. During playing drama, it is possible to go back to the main menu by using “menu button”.

Special Features (Normal)

Special Features:

Who is Inhan Cho? (Biography)

Comments for Video (alternate audio track)

Main Menu

This can be a highlight menu. "Who is Inhan Cho" is a kind of simple biography and it may be slideshow. If the user chooses "comment for video", it may jump to the video clips that contain some comments.
